Quincy has been in the process of undergoing a major $1.6 billion dollar transit-oriented, mixed use redevelopment giving an updated look, a mixed use development, added pedestrian appeal and added parking, while maintaining the character and charm of the city. Quincy is also home to where the famous Drop Kick Murphy's Band was formed.

Formerly the Elks Building, this downtown Georgian structure has been converted into an elegant four-level office building. The exterior has many original features, such as the arched windows, columned entrance and brick and granite façade, all of which have been retained. The dramatically lit interior is renovated incorporating an atrium, marble floors and mahogany doors and woodwork. Suite 120 contains 6 single office suites on the first floor accessible via front entrance. There are staircases and elevator access also.
